Session Name	Session Description.	Learning Objective #1	Learning Objective #2	Learning Objective #3	Session Speaker(s)	Session Start Date/Time	Session Location	CPE Track
*Working with Others: Can't We All Just Get Along?	Workplace conflict is never easy! As administrators, many of us prefer to ignore or avoid these situations instead of dealing with them. In this session, you'll learn causes of conflict and how you can increase your own capacity to effectively work with others as well as effectively help others so they can build collaborative and positive relationships.	Identify the main causes of conflict and what you can do to mitigate it.	Explain your role and responsibilities when it comes to workplace conflict	Increase your skills to handle yourself and others during conflict.	Patty Corum	Nov. 15, 2021 10:45-11:35 a.m.	Gravois/ Osage Room	Personnel/Human Resources
*#Where the Money Comes From: What Your Audiences Need to Know	Answering the question, "Where does the money come from to support my school district?" shouldn't be so difficult! In this session, you'll review the sources of revenue and receive tips for providing a simple answer to a complex question.	Differentiate the sources of revenue for Missouri public schools in simple terms	Describe (in ways that non-finance people can understand) how the different sources of revenue are used.	Explain how to adapt the same revenue information to various external and internal audiences.	Ron Orr	Nov. 15, 2021 1:00-1:50 p.m.	Gravois/ Osage Room	Communication and Marketing
*#Creating an Award-Winning Budget	Does applying for the MBA or the Pathway to the MBA intimidate you? Or, do you wonder why the MBA is such a big deal? In this session you'll hear from someone who has received this award multiple times. Learn how this process can help build trust and improve communication with stakeholders.	Discuss the purpose and design of the Meritorious Budget Award.	Identify the components of the Executive Summary for a budget proposal.	List the components of the Organizational, Financial and Organizational Sections of the budget plan.	Paul Kelly	Nov. 15, 2021 2:00 - 2:50 p.m.	Osage	Finance

*#Management of School Facilities: Funding Methods for Construction Projects	When it comes to funding construction projects, it's important to know what options are available. In this session, you'll learn about the various funding methods and how to determine which one is the best for your district's projects.	List options for funding construction projects.	Identify and evaluate which options are applicable to different projects.	Explain the legal requirements for the various options.	Tom Pisarkiewicz	Nov. 16, 2021 8:00 - 8:50 p.m.	Gravois/ Osage Room	Finance
*#Telling the Financial Story of Public Education	When you talk about public education funding, what types of data do you use? In this session, you will learn about resources for data and how to use data to explain education issues that non-finance people can understand.	Summarize sources of data for public education funding to help you explain education issues	Explain the history of K-12 funding so your audiences have a better understanding how and why funding has changed.	Discuss the correlation between education and future earnings.	Mark Tallman	Nov. 16, 2021 9:00 - 9:50 a.m.	Gravois/ Osage Room	Communication and Marketing
*#Legal Hot Topics	This session will examine the coming (hopefully!) post-pandemic legal landscape and how schools should prepare for the same. ESSER fund auditing, contracting requirements, data privacy concerns and fraud prevention will be the focus of this session as we discuss how to manage the legal risks that will accompany the transition to a post-pandemic world.	Identify potential legal risks for public school districts that may arise from transitioning to a post-pandemic world.	Understand core legal requirements for contracting with public school districts.	Understand and manage the risk of fraud and audits arising from the use of ESSER funding.	John Reynolds Celynda Brasher	Nov. 16, 2021 10:00 - 10:50 a.m.	Gravois/ Osage Room	Business Law
